

18.020

I would like to state that I would hope that there would be no change to our local area. It is, in my opinion a very workable situation where both halves of an area, like terenure, work for the betterment of the area. The elected members of this area are known to the local population and are seen around relating to our local problems. There is no need for any change to this current situation in my opinion. I have no loyalties to any party but when you see something not broken why does it need to be fixed or do local opinions on such matters not appear to be relevant any more. Does big brothers thoughts have to be pushed on every one all the time.

John Farrell, Terenure, Dublin 6w.