To whom it may concern

I am writing to you to ask that Gallow district be reinstated into the Ratoath electoral area. Gallow as the address above suggests is more associated with Kilcock , Co. Kildare and Dunboyne which is in the Ratoath area.

Gallow is part of the Dunboyne hinterland. People travel to work in Dunboyne and socialise there. A number of people in this area abstained from voting in the 2014 election as this area was moved from the Ratoath area to the Trim area.

Please consider my request.
